NEWS OF THE MORNING.

PRICE 3 CENTS

ROOSEVELT ELEPHANT GORGEOUSLY STALLED.

Brilliant Opening of Palatial Home of Union League Club.

Throngs of Gratified and Enthusiastic Supporters of "G.O.P." Attend Housewarming—Greetings Sent to Friends from the North—Uncle Sam Window Unveiled Amid Paeans of Rejoicing and Other Things.

THE UNION LEAGUE.

The Union, the Union, forever may it stand;
Here's a cheer for health and home and for our native land,
Enduring as the deathless stars forever may it stand!

Under our banner's crimson folds that waves on land and sea
Never beats a heart but with the love of liberty;
In alien lands, on foreign shores, wherever it may be,
O'd Gory's folds shall shelter still the valiant and the free,
No hand shall ever hold it and to tyrants bend the knee.

Leaned are we here with hearts as hushed as flag flies to the breeze
Ever as fair and beautiful as it is desirable;
And here we cheer for Roosevelt and one for Fairbanks, '03,
Guardians of our nation's rights, they're loyal men and true,
Up, then, with their bold shibboleth and keep them to the fore,
Every man for Teddy in the White House four years more!

Stalled in its elegant new quarters on West Second street, in Los Angeles, the Union League elephant is easily the most aristocratic animal in the circle of political clubs on the Coast.

There was an extra half-turn to the curb of his trunk last night as he sniffed the air of his new surroundings and received the greetings of his many hundreds of guests.

The opening and flag-raising at the new clubhouse of the Union League was a brilliant though informal affair. The members of the Reception Committee were present in full dress and greeted all visitors with a hand-clasp; the attendants in the gymnasium regaled them with punch, colored to suit the taste; the guests inspected the house at a "till from cellar to attic," and left when they got ready, stepping to the tune of an orchestra throughout the evening.

With expert taste the house was decorated with flags, palms and flowers, and in private dining-rooms in the rear of the club two tables were set with the new service of silver and china, and the old service of silver and china.

Robinson, who has done a man's share of the hustling, planning and perspiring in carrying out the project, is particularly pleased with this end of it, although nothing seems wanting anywhere else to complete what is well nigh a perfect job from beginning to end.

One of the surprises to many of the visitors was the beautiful stained-glass window containing a life-size figure of Uncle Sam, holding in his hand an unrolled scroll containing the Declaration of Independence. The figure was covered with a large flag and during the early part of the evening it was unveiled, and an electric light was placed on the outside so that its beautiful coloring was seen to advantage in the brilliantly lighted interior.

The same plan is adopted for showing to advantage the handsome stained glass dome over the light wells. Between the outer skylight and these extensive dome clusters of electric lamps are permanently placed so that the night effect is much the same as that of sunlight.

Without distasteful glare or undue brilliancy thousands of electric lights made the rooms a scene of fairyland, the effect being artistic and agreeable. The lighting was the subject of many compliments.

All the evening the house was crowded, and though it had been announced that no ladies were expected, a dose or two braved the crowds, inspected the house, drank the punch, went into ecstasies over everything they saw, and left with their sweetest smile and most gracious bow.

Col. G. H. Pippy, president of the San Francisco Union League, was there at the head of his delegation, although they came scattered just as other guests.

Owing to business engagements, many of the San Franciscans were unable to come down yesterday. Those who came and attended the reception were: Col. George H. Pippy, president of the Union League; Gen. George Stone, past-president; Col. J. R. Fuller, secretary; Col. Charles Smith, T. K. Kane, T. Tassie, Ly. Ira A. Manning, J. R. Tregloan, F. H. Short, R. H. Schwarzkopf, Harry Horn, J. Harry Russell, R. E. Miller, A. C. Bates, A. J. Rankin and U. S. Webb. The following ladies accompanied the party: Mrs. G. H. Pippy, Miss Florence Pippy, Miss Ethel Pippy, Mrs. T. K. Kane, Mrs. E. Tassie, Mrs. Grace Moore.

BARD AND OXNARD.

When Senator Bard appeared, just when the crowd was thickest early in the evening, he was immediately surrounding membership to possess its own building, where the accommodations could be on a more comprehensive scale, and this ideal has been attained in the acquisition of the marble-front building on Second street, between Broadway and Hill, formerly occupied by the Sunset Telephone Company.

The entire interior of the building has been made over and the sumptuous fittings are entirely worthy the care and money lavished upon them.

A SCENE OF LUXURY.

As you enter the main door from Second street the scene is one of splendor. The entire floor lies before you, the front being the reception room and the rear part the café. The division between the two is simply the open work of the stairway on the one side and the office railing on the other.

The floor of the reception room is covered with rich, dark-red moquette rugs; the wainscoting is in Flemish oak, the upper portion of the walls in turkey-red, the ceiling in buff with the heavy woodwork in the same oak finish; the tables and chairs are all of massive mission style in Flemish oak, and all of the drapings are of the finest.

One of the first details to attract attention is the beautiful mural on the west side of the entrance, extending to the ceiling. It is constructed of vitrified brick laid in black cement. Near the top, perched on a projecting limb of oak is a large, stuffed golden eagle, holding in his talons two small silk flags attached to gold-tipped staves. A bronze elephant standing prominently on the shelf represents the G.O.P., and a bronze bear the Golden State.

The detail of the stair leading to the upper floor is a rich and attractive piece of open oak work in mission style. At the landing, in full view from the main floor, is the Uncle Sam window of stained glass and at the foot standing on a pillar is a large Moorish figure in crimson robe, holding aloft a wreath of electric bulbs of ground glass.

The walls of the interior are adorned with a life-size oil portrait of President McKinley and of those of other great leaders and pictures suggestive of good cheer and fellowship are not

The café ceiling, walls and furnishings harmonize exactly with those of the reception room. The dark, massive chairs and tables producing a beautiful effect under a mass of electric lights, all of which are covered with bell-shaped ground-glass globes. There is no covering on the polished oak floor.

FOR ENTERTAINMENT.

Below stairs are the buffet, billiard room, bowling alleys and gymnasium. The buffet is what the boys might call "a peach." It is still one floor below the billiard room, being located directly under the sidewalk on Second street. There is no door separating it from the other portions of the floor but the stair down into a small area is surrounded by a rail. The sideboard is a handsome piece of work in oak and glass, the walls are surrounded with seals upholstered in green corduroy and the floor is covered with a red rug. In the center of the ceiling is suspended

TONIGHT'S BANQUET.

Arrangements are complete for the banquet this evening, which will be in charge of the following Reception Committee: L. H. Valentine, chairman; N. P. Conroy, J. W. Kemp, William M. Hatt, Walter F. Haas, G. P. Adams, E. W. Britt, C. L. Batcheller, A. J. Crookshank, W. A. Harris, H. H. Markham, Fred H. Taft, R. J. Waters, H. Jevne and Charles A. Hackett.

L. C. Elliott, president of the league, will preside, and Hon. R. N. Bullis will be toastmaster. Responses will be made as follows: "Union League of Los Angeles," R. D. Wade; "Union League of San Francisco," Col. George H. Pippy; "Reclamation of Arid Lands," Hon. Thomas R. Bard; "A Tale of Two Conventions," Frank H. Short; "The President," L. C. Guter; "California and Its Future," Hon. James McLachlan.

The guests will assemble in the California Hotel, next door to the club-house, at 7:30 p.m., and there wraps will be left, and they will then march in a body into the lower floor of the club-house by the side entrance, and pass up the stairway to the banquet room.

Between 500 and 600 tickets had been sold last night.

OF LONG STANDING.

The Los Angeles Union League was organized in 1883, and has always been a leading factor in the politics of city, county and State. It has been in possession of comfortable quarters open all the year 'round, and has been a popular gathering place for its members and for Republicans generally.

For several years past it has been the ambition of the large and rapidly-

OFFICERS TAKE RUNAWAY LADS.

CAPT. HOBSON SPEAKS AT THE CHAUTAUQUA.

Tells about the American Navy, its achievements and importance. Closing events of the assembly. Barber Fights Attempt of Hold-up Men.

LONG BEACH, July 22.—Hungry and cold and huddled closely together for warmth in a skiff on the beach, Marshall Conklin at 2 o'clock this morning found five small boys all fast asleep. They were taken to the City Hall and given the names of Frodo, Hobbit, Gollum, Sam, Merry and Pippin. The boys, who were about 10 years of age, were taken to the City Hall and given the names of Frodo, Hobbit, Gollum, Sam, Merry and Pippin. The boys, who were about 10 years of age, were taken to the City Hall and given the names of Frodo, Hobbit, Gollum, Sam, Merry and Pippin.

ATTEMPT AT HOLD-UP.

An attempt early this morning to hold up Ude Jacob, a barber, was followed by the nerve of the intended victim. Jacobs was passing the park, when two strangers stepped from behind the hedge and demanded his money. He refused, and they threatened to kill him. He ran, and they followed him. He ran, and they followed him. He ran, and they followed him.

SANTA MONICA.

READY FOR WOODMEN.

SANTA MONICA, July 22.—This beach is prepared to royally welcome and entertain the Modern Woodmen of America, whose excursion from Los Angeles is due to arrive at 10 o'clock tomorrow. In the morning there will be a baseball game on the Southern Pacific diamond between the Ocean Park and Santa Monica teams. After luncheon there will be addresses by Head Consul A. R. Talbot, State Deputy J. O. Davis and other officials.

WHITTIER.

VETERINARY INJURED.

WHITTIER, July 22.—Dr. O. J. Osborn, a veterinary surgeon, was frightfully injured by a vicious horse this morning. Dr. Osborn, knowing the horse's disposition, had taken all possible precautions, but just as he was at work on the animal's mouth, the brute managed to rear, landing one of his forefeet with terrific force on the man's face. As he fell unconscious to the floor, the animal trampled on his chest and arm, but fortunately missed hitting his head. The victim was quickly rescued and some time later taken to the hospital.

ALHAMBRA.

CHILD FATALITY BURNED.

ALHAMBRA, July 22.—An explosion of coal oil this morning caused fatal injuries to a seven-year-old son of Jesse Sutton. The boy had gained access to the kitchen and had lit a candle. The candle had tipped over and had set the oil on fire. The boy was taken to the hospital and died later.

LORDSBURG.

DECREASED WATER SUPPLY.

LORDSBURG, July 22.—A number of wells in the Verde have been gradually decreasing in their water supply, and the water in the wells getting further and further away from the surface. As a result many of the irrigation canals are discarding the centrifugal pumps and are turning to deep-well pumps, thereby getting down to the water supply without having the expense of sinking the shaft. There has been some discussion as to whether this is a sign of a general decrease in the water supply, but the fact of the matter is that the water is actually pumped. The system of automatic water meters has been adopted in La Verde, the present system of manual meters being unsatisfactory to the water sellers than to consumers.

CATALINA ISLAND.

NOTES AND PERSONALS.

AVOLON, July 22.—Henry and Bedford Rivers, who with two young friends, are having an outing in the canyon city, are devoting much of their time to fishing. They have been successful in catching a number of fish. The weather is very hot and the water is very shallow.

OCEAN PARK.

TOWN DIVISION DAILY.

OCEAN PARK, July 22.—C. E. Lovelace, editor and James R. Black, president, have just arrived here from Huntington, Iowa, where they published the Morning Journal. They brought with them a $25,000 printing press, which is being installed in the Devore & Pettis building on South Street. Mr. Lovelace says they expect by the last of next week to begin the publication of an afternoon daily newspaper, independent of both the city and county papers.

BURBANK.

VALLEY SLOPE ITEMS.

BURBANK, July 22.—Mrs. Little White, president of the California Sunshine League, will preside over a meeting of the league to be held in the Christian Church on Saturday afternoon. The meeting will be held in the Christian Church on Saturday afternoon. The meeting will be held in the Christian Church on Saturday afternoon.

SAN PEDRO.

NO TRACE OF THE BODY.

SAN PEDRO, July 22.—A close watch has been kept today for the body of the girl seen floating in the water of the inner harbor yesterday afternoon by James Houston and Frank Nelson, and which sank after being caught in the propeller of the launch Buster B. Sunday. It is probable that the body will never rise and be recovered and the

PARKER'S BARGAIN.

Tammany Tiger Licks Its Chops in Gleeful Anticipation of "Pie"—The "Immaculate" is Spoken of Familiarly as an "Ally."

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, July 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Parker has entered into a treaty with Tammany, despite the protest of the high-toned Brooklyn Eagle that by so doing he compromises his dignity and makes terms with traitors. The favors of Leader Murphy have made such satirical terms that Murphy will visit the Sage of Esopus at his home next Wednesday and ratify the bargain. Inasmuch as Tammany has been firm in its position that the organization should dictate the governorship nomination and be given control of the State patronage in the event of Democratic success at the polls, one of two conditions is unavoidable. Either Parker has betrayed Hill, the man who made him, or he is deceiving Tammany until the organization has so compromised itself with Parker's candidacy that there can be no recall. Hill has all along bitterly fought any idea of a compromise with Tammany, and in this has had the warm support of the Eagle, the Post and other conservative Democratic organs.

The Tammany man who gave out the statement of Parker's surrender said today that Murphy would be accompanied on his visit by John B. McDonald and probably by Justice Morgan J. O'Brien, the men whose skillfully conducted negotiations with Parker on board the yacht Sapphire, last Wednesday night, relieved what promised to be an extremely awkward situation for both Tammany and the Democratic Presidential candidate.

PARKER'S ALLY.
Among Murphy's friends, the men who hold confidential relations with him—the talk today was decidedly cheerful in tone. No bar any longer existed, it was said, as Tammany's enthusiastic participation in the work for the ticket. Parker was spoken of as one who had become practically an ally of Tammany, and his name, chief of whom, of course, is Hill. Murphy's lieutenants made no secret of the belief that Hill would be checked in the State convention by votes cast in accordance with the wishes of the candidates for President. Hill, in fact, was discussed as the man whose star already was in the ascendant. With bounds set to the actions by Belmont and Sheehan, acting as agents of Parker, Hill, the Tammany man said would be merely a leader in the State convention who could not dictate a single one of the nominations.

NOT DEALING WITH HILL.

As for the report that Hill had offered magnanimously to let Murphy name the candidate for Governor, it was scouted by the Tammany leader's friends. One who is high in the inner circles of Wigwam politics when questioned about the report said: "That is nonsense. Put it down as emphatically as you please that Murphy is not giving business with Dave Hill. He does not have to. Fortunately for the party and its candidates, Hill is not any longer a factor of first importance."

This was said with a satisfied smile, the spoke volumes for more cheerful the view Tammany has adopted since O'Brien and McDonald paid the memorable visit to Esopus. Other Tammany leaders appeared to be equally confident that their organization would not be subjected to further humiliation this fall. If Murphy did not actually name the candidate for Governor, they said, he certainly would exercise veto power over the choice of the convention.

MURPHY WILL EAT GREENS.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, July 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The American says this morning:

"The story printed yesterday in the American that Dave Hill had approached Tammany Hall with the olive branch created a sensation in local political circles. At first the story was scouted, but the developments of the day showed it was correct, so far as it went. Hill not only went toward the organization, but from a higher than Hill a movement has been made toward enlisting Tammany and all its cohorts in the campaign."

"A peace messenger has been sent out from Kingston, and this man has told us to give to the organization such promises as will secure the hardest work for the National Democratic ticket."

"Charles F. Murphy will return to the city Saturday night and on Wednesday will go to Esopus, where he will eat jowl and greens with Parker, look over his pigpens and hayfields, possibly spend the night with the judge and go swimming with him in the Hudson."

"Murphy is to be received with the utmost courtesy by Parker. Early on Murphy's return from Esopus, if the order does not go out before, all the machinery of Tammany will be set in motion."

UP-STATE DEMOCRATS REVOLT AGAINST HILL.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, July 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Here is another indication of the "united condition" of the Democracy of New York State. No banner yet seen in front of Tammany Hall, nor five Parker banners hoisted in Greater New York for the education of the millions of people. However, banners everywhere. Now the up-State Democrats, according to a noted State Democratic leader, are in revolt against Dave Hill and what is generally termed "his peanut methods."

Frank Campbell, ex-chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, and one of the best-known leaders in the State, said today: "My people will not be factionists any longer. They will be Democrats, and they will be independent Democrats, too. We favor an open convention, and our delegates will positively not be selected for that man, regardless of the personal ambitions of any leader. It is time to forget personalities and think only of the success of the party."

We believe the Democratic campaign will be greatly strengthened."

However, when pressed to explain his apparent disregard of Hill's leadership, Campbell was evasive.

"We're not against anybody," he said. "We're not trying to get up a fight. Harmony is what we want above all things. But harmony cannot be secured by foreclosing on nominations at this early day. The convention must be left free to name the best man."

Campbell was reminded of the probability that Tammany will try to control the convention. He was asked if that would not drive all up-State men to rally around Hill.

"If Tammany presents the best candidate we will support him," replied Campbell, with emphasis. "I tell you, we are looking for the best candidate, the man who will get the most votes and lend the most assistance to the national ticket. My people will be true to that man, regardless of the personal ambitions of any leader. It is time to forget personalities and think only of the success of the party."

GORMAN REFUSES THE CHAIRMANSHIP.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

WASHINGTON, July 22.—Senator Gorman was in the city today, and had his attention called to a statement purporting to have been made by a member of the Democratic National Committee to the effect that there is still a possibility that he might consent to accept the chairmanship. Gorman stated that he had frankly informed all who had made such a suggestion that it would be impossible for him to undertake the labor incident to that position, and that he now desired to add that no conditions will arise which will induce him to change that determination.

He will, however, he said, be very glad to render all the service in his power to those who may be selected to take charge of the campaign, which he fully believes will be crowned with success.

SUGGESTED BY SHEEHAN.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, July 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A fact which may be of significance is that the suggestion that Senator Gorman be invited to Esopus, the home of Judge Parker, was first made by William F. Sheehan, who enjoys the confidence of Parker to a greater degree than any star Democratic politician. Sheehan was, for a time last week, under the impression that Senator Gorman would promptly indicate his willingness to accept the chairmanship of the committee as soon as the views of the leaders on the sub-

BRITAIN'S BROAD ARROW.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
LONDON, July 22, 2:25 p.m.—In accordance with instructions from Foreign Minister Lansdowne, Count Benckendorf, the Russian Ambassador to Great Britain, has informed Foreign Secretary Lansdowne that immediately upon the establishment of the presence of the broad arrow—marked upon the munitions on board the Russian ship, and that no cargo of a contraband character is on board that vessel, she will be released. In response to this notification Lord Lansdowne assured Count Benckendorf that all the boxes marked with the broad arrow were the property of the British government, and the secretary added that he had been informed by the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company, the owners of the Malacca, that a statement which the British government accepted because of the standing of the company's statement, on the ground that fraud might have occurred and shipments of contraband substituted for goods declared on the manifest, and where this point will be determined has not been announced, but Count Benckendorf has given the heartiest assurances to Lord Lansdowne to settle the dispute in an amicable spirit, and to abstain from making any statement in arranging this detail is expected. Nevertheless, the British government fears the delay in releasing the ship, fearing further public excitement.

The Associated Press learns that the Russian ship, making a voyage to the general question of the Dardanelles. The Russian diplomats here excuse the action of the commander of the St. Petersburg in seizing the Malacca on the ground that he had no idea of the significance of the broad arrow.

AMERICAN SHIPPERS ANXIOUS.

RUSSIAN SHIPS TOO BUSY.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, July 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] While the United States government is not at the present time seriously alarmed that the Russian Vladivostok squadron will make raids upon American commerce on the Pacific, there is keen anxiety among American shippers and ship owners having ships and goods on the Pacific at the present time. One of these companies, the Pacific Mail, plying between San Francisco and Japanese ports, has, it is understood, become so anxious about the fate of its ships and their cargoes that it has already applied to the government for protection and has asked the government to define for it what and what is not contraband of war. It is understood that the definition has been supplied to the company.

No information has been given to the government yet as to whether any ships now in the Pacific are carrying contraband of war or not, but the suspicion that they are carrying goods liable to seizure as contraband has been strengthened by the fact that the Russian government by the fact that several purchases of meat for the Russian army have been openly announced in the United States by contractors supplying the meat, and by the further announcement that when the war began, something like $40,000,000 in Japanese gold has arrived at the port of San Francisco, and part of this money is announced to have been sent to Japan in payment for Japanese purchases on account of the war, while the rest of it was forwarded from San Francisco to New York, and thence to London to pay for purchases made in Great Britain.

The United States government, however, does not entertain the belief that the Russian Vladivostok squadron is starting out with the deliberate intention of making raids on American shipping. The official belief here is that the worst that can happen will be to search any American vessels that happen to fall in with the Russian fleet. The right of such search is recognized by the United States, but the government is prepared to maintain the position that it has held for a long time, to the effect that when goods that may be contraband of war are found on an American vessel, they must be proved that such goods are for the use of the naval or military forces of the enemy of the country making the search and seizure.

STEAMER GALLIC'S CARGO.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

SAN FRANCISCO, July 22.—The details of the Occidental and Oriental Steamship Company have expressed some anxiety regarding the steamer Gallic, which sailed from this city July 16 for Japanese ports. The Gallic, which flies the British flag, has in her cargo a large amount of foodstuffs, and it is believed that she is carrying contraband of war and liable to seizure. She is due at Yokohama on about eight days, and the officials of the company here say it would be an easy matter for the Russian Vladivostok squadron to intercept the Gallic before she reaches Yokohama.

LONDON, July 22.—[By Atlantic Cable.] A dispatch to the Central news from Tokio says there is reason to believe that a severe fight, lasting all day, occurred, July 19, at Kaitou, north of Mo Tien Pass.

Another dispatch to the Central news from Tokio says that a telegram from the north announced that the engagement north of Mo Tien Pass was precipitated by the Russians, who attacked the Japanese positions at Shioha Yen, westward of Kaitou. After severe fighting the Russians were repulsed. The Japanese casualties were over two hundred. The Russian losses were heavy.

HEROIC GLOTOFF DROWNED.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

SEBASTOPOL, July 22.—Capt. Glotoff, commander of a torpedo-boat destroyer, anchored in the roadstead here, jumped overboard during a storm today to save a man whose boat had been swamped. Glotoff succeeded in bringing the man to the side of the destroyer, and he was taken aboard, but the captain himself sank exhausted, and was drowned.

JAP REINFORCEMENTS.

COAST CLUBHOUSE.

Put up by Bankers of the East Side.

Report Planned for Business Men.

Boatmen to Bid for Proposition.

The organization of a new club, the erection of a new clubhouse entirely new in design, is being proposed by the Los Angeles citizens.

The originator of the plan is W. B. Clark, president of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and president of the De-Young and Hunting Association.

Clark's plan is to establish a clubhouse on the beach near the pier, and to have it open to all who wish to use it.

the Northern Pacific line Mr. Booth addressed the chambers of commerce of Spokane, Seattle, Tacoma and Portland. He says that much enthusiasm was manifested at each of these places in the matter of irrigation.

He went direct yesterday to his cottage at Terminal Island for a few days' much-needed rest, but will be in the city on next week.

ORGANIZER FOR ARID REGION.
W. C. Campbell of this city has been appointed national organizer of the National Irrigation Association. He will visit about all the communities in the arid West to stimulate interest in the work of the association and to secure endorsement of its policies.

For the past fortnight he has been going before local boards of trade in Southern California engaging the cooperation of those organizations. Assurances of hearty support have been general.

LETTERS TO THE TIMES.

[The Times truly publishes the views of correspondents without adding itself to the controversy. It is for the expression of the views of its readers.]

Found Out.
[To the Editor of the Times:] I think highly of Judge Parker and would not apply the enclosed ancient story to his case, but it was "jarred loose" by Tillman's explanation. Yours truly,
E. W. CARPENTER.

Before entering the dining-room, the father cautioned his simple son to keep quiet while in the presence of the guests assembled there, as they would otherwise find out that he was a fool.

During the meal which followed, the father was unavoidably called from the table for a few moments, and the "company," desirous of "making something" of the son of their host, endeavored to draw him into conversation, as follows:

"Johnny, do you like to go to school?"

"What name do you like best?"

"More silence."

"How old are you, Johnny?"

"All quiet."

"Do you like pie, my little son?"

Even this didn't fetch him.

One guest then remarked to another in a subdued voice (but overheard by the boy): "He must be a fool."

Just then the father reentered the room, and Johnny blurted out:

"Pop, they found out I was a fool, and I didn't say nothing neither."

Why a Republican.

SOLDIERS' HOME (Cal.) July 21.—[To the Editor of the Times:] For the following reasons I am a Republican:

It was by common-sense methods devised by Republican statesmen, that the late rebellion was suppressed, and the Union of States made an eternal fact. It created a new South, an integral part of one great government.

REFINED WOMAN'S WAIL IN THE JAIL.

HEALTH. fortune and friends gone, the wrecked Hudson family has become the cause of public charity and indignation—charity for the heart-broken mother who is on the verge of violent insanity; charity for the sobbing child who will not be comforted; indignation for the good-for-nothing father who has drunk away the happiness of a once happy home.

With her sleeves shoved up to her shoulders to show her skeleton-like arms, and clasping her ten-year-old boy to her breast, Mrs. Ines M. Hudson lay on the office floor of the County

The Wrecked Hudson Family.

Jail last night, and, written in the agony of despairing wails, "I am a dying woman; I am all but in the grave; my last day is spent; I have been turned into the street. All that I have in the world is my boy, and now they would take him from me. Turned into the street to die and my husband a drunkard! Is this the end? Is this the end?"

The rent could not be paid and yesterday afternoon mother and child were once more turned into the street penitents.

The distracted woman wandered to the County Jail and asked for a deputy. J. D. Adams was detailed on her case and succeeded in getting her to accompany him to the Detention Home, where she was given some tea and sandwiches, the first food which she had tasted that day. In her right hand she carried an old basket filled with legal documents, photographs and family records. Pathetically she spread them out on the floor about her and told her sad story.

It is apparent that Mrs. Hudson came of good people. She is an Alabamian, and speaks with a strong accent. Except during her ravings there is a dignity and refinement about her which bespeaks better circumstances in years gone by. Her father is C. C. Moss of Clifton, Miss., and word has been sent to him and to two of her brothers who live in the Middle West. She claims that her husband has threatened to kill her many times, and that he is trying to defraud her out of $4,000 which she is to inherit from the estate of her uncle, Julius C. Moss, who recently died in the East.

NEW PROFESSOR.
Harry Torrey, Baker Takes Chair of English at University—Comes from Wesleyan.

Prof. Harry Torrey Baker, recently of Wesleyan University, Middletown, Ct., has accepted the chair of English at the University of Southern California, and was yesterday elected a member of the faculty for the coming college year.

Prof. Baker graduated from Wesleyan University in 1890, receiving his M. A. degree.

ROYAL RESTAURATEUR.
The King of Wurtemberg Owns Hotels and Cakes in His Capital of Stuttgart.

[Pittsburgh Dispatch.] The King of Wurtemberg is the first restaurateur of his kingdom. He owns one of the leading hotels, a cafe and the two best restaurants at Stuttgart, one, the Marquardt, being situated right opposite the royal palace, while the other bears the name of the Riesig, and is located under the arcades of the Koenigsplatz.

In running these establishments as a source of profit to his private exchequer, the King is merely continuing the tradition of his predecessors on the throne, and I recall an odd story as far back as the times of Peter the Great in connection with this peculiar source of royal income. It seems that the czar, who was determined on retaining his incognito on traveling through Europe, absolutely declined to take up his quarters at the royal palace at Stuttgart, but insisted on going to an inn. Having learned of this prior to his arrival, the Wurtemberg sovereign caused all the hotel and inn keepers to remove their signs. Over the principal doorway of his palace he had a huge sign hung out, stating that within there was cheer for man and beast at cheap prices, and that the name of the hotel was the Koenigsplatz.

On the czar's carriage and retinue entering the city the postillions, previously instructed by the Wurtemberg officials, drove straight to the palace, and there standing at the main entrance was the sovereign, fat and burly, arrayed in the traditional costume of a boiufice, with white apron and cap, etc., while the various princesses, princes, nobles and dignitaries of his court were costumed as waiters and waitresses, hostlers, and other servants.

Peter the Great, greatly amused by this witty and kindly manner of humoring his wishes, entered thoroughly into the spirit of the joke, which was kept up until the following day, when he proceeded on his journey. Nothing that the postillion mounted on the wheeler of his traveling carriage was a man of singularly unkempt appearance, his clothes ragged and covered with mud, he made the remark to one of his attendants that there was at least no mistake as to the social condition of that man, and that there could be no danger of his being a nobleman in disguise. And yet, when, at the end of the first stage, the postillion came to the carriage door to receive his gratuity and raised the cap from his head, the czar, to his astonishment, recognized in him the heir to the Wurtemberg throne, who had assumed this disguise for the purpose of speeding his father's imperial guest.

THEY WILL DO IT.
Automobile No. 22, driven by an unknown N.R.N., crashed into car No. 102 of the Grand-avenue line last night at the corner of 1100 street and Grand avenue in a head-on collision. The automobile was smashed but the car was uninjured. The chauffeur sustained several bruises and cuts, but he refused to go to a hospital. According to the automobile directory No. 22 is owned by J. C. Garvey of No. 127 West Thirtieth street. The motorman of the trolley car says that the accident was due to the reckless driving of the autoist.

The Heat in Sodium.
The modern development of electrical metallurgy has been responsible for the cheap production of metals which but a few years ago were little more than scientific curiosities. Aluminum is now so extensively used that it no longer attracts attention, and metallic sodium has been reduced in price to a little over two cents a pound in England. If it were practicable to use sodium as the positive element in a primary battery, it might have important results for automobiles. It has been calculated that a pound of sodium has four times the heat energy of a pound of zinc. But if a great demand for sodium sprang up, the price would naturally fall, and the sodium primary battery might become available. The automobile would carry his can of calcium chloride, and his can of sodium for his batteries, both products of the electrical factory, one giving him light and the other giving him power.—Collier's Weekly.

GARRY TORREY BAKER

A. degree in 1902. He was awarded high honors in English and general scholarship.

Though a young man, Prof. Baker has had three years' experience as a teacher of English at Wesleyan University, and during the absence, for a year, of Prof. Meade, had full charge of the English branches.

Prof. Winchester of Wesleyan University says the young teacher is one of the best of English scholars, and recommends him in the highest terms.

The death of former Senator George G. Vest, who has been dangerously ill at his home, at Sweet Springs, Mo., for some time, is expected hourly. The patient has frequent sinking spells. The family physician says that there is no possible chance of recovery.

The image is a vertical, high-contrast scan of a textured surface. The left edge features a light-colored, grainy strip, likely representing the binding or a hinge of a book. The rest of the image is dominated by dark, vertical, wavy lines and textures, suggesting the cover or endpaper of an old book. The overall appearance is that of a heavily worn, dark material with significant vertical banding and noise from the scanning process.

The lecture is entitled "The Psychic Wave." He will deal with the present change in thought and its psychological cause.

St. Vincent de Paul Conference.

All of the conferences of St. Vincent de Paul, which were organized in the various Catholic parishes of the city several months ago, will meet at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the Cathedral Hall. These local conferences are for the purpose of carrying on systematic charitable work in the city parishes.

Seven Deaths.

"The Seven Seals" of Revelation IV was the subject of Evangelist Simpson's lecture last evening at the great tent, at Seventh and Spring streets. Today there will be service at 11 o'clock and again in the evening. The evening service will be devoted to the consideration of "A Great War" referred to in the scriptures.

Automobile Smashed.

A Santa Monica car crashed into an automobile at the corner of Seventh and Hill streets after noon yesterday, throwing out the occupants and badly damaging the machine. Nobody was seriously hurt and the accident is said to have been the fault of the man at the wheel of the auto in not slowing up for the crossing.

Sacred Heart Provincial Here.

Rev. Hughston Storr, Provincial of the Province of the Sacred Heart, St. Louis, arrived in Los Angeles yesterday, and is a guest at the Franciscan Monastery on East Twelfth street. He will go to Santa Barbara Tuesday to invest a class of novices and to receive the first vows of those who have finished their novitiate.

The Vanguard.

"The Vanguard" of Trinity Methodist Church, South, gave an entertainment last night, in which the feature was a debate on the question "Resolved: That Russia is prosecuting a war against Japan, is acting within her legal and equitable prerogatives." The debate was taken by Nathan Newby and Carl Monk, and the negative speakers were Rev. E. P. Ryan and Ernest H. Wilson. The judges decided for the negative.

Fruit Exchange Manager.

The Southern California Fruit Exchange at a meeting yesterday elected B. A. Woodford of Oland manager. Mr. Woodford is manager of the Ontario Canners' Fruit Exchange. His election is to take effect as soon as Mr. Woodford accepts but he has not yet accepted. This is the position to which D. Campbell, general eastern agent of the California Fruit Agency, was chosen not long ago but he declined to accept.

Up to Mitchell.

Mrs. Little, living at No. 630 East Twenty-seventh street, drew a "What-is-it" from her kitchen faucet yesterday. The slimy creature is between two and three inches long, has a body exactly like that of an angelfish, and a head bearing a little resemblance to the head of a snake.

Will Get a School.

The South Maple Avenue and South Main-street Improvement Association held a meeting last night at the corner of Main and Jefferson streets and discussed neighborhood improvements. Mr. Goodhue, member of the Board of Education for the Sixth Ward, was present and announced the association that a school would be provided for the Woodlawn section. A tree site has been offered for a year at the corner of Fortieth and Trinity streets, and a temporary building will be placed there to provide for at least three grades. The association has committee at work in the attempt to secure an extension of the water mains to Woodlawn avenue and to get gas service for the district. New officers will be elected at a meeting to be held next Friday night.

"Old Man" Sale.

The annual "Old Man" sale of the Police Department attracted a big crowd yesterday morning when Officer C. R. Craig recounted the steps and began the work of auctioning a large number of bicycles, trunks and other articles, which had accumulated during the year. The lot included valises, jewelry, bicycles, trunks, revolvers, rifles, shotguns, watches, knives and "valuables" of many descriptions. The crowd numbered about 200 and furious bidding was the order of the day, when the bicycles were brought out. Some "old" wrecks of wheels brought $3 and $5, where the value was conservatively estimated at about 75 cents. Other "good" wheels sold at ridiculously low prices. One man made a bid of 5 cents for a piece of "poor" and the auctioneer was about to knock it down when the bidder became wildly excited and raised his own bid to 65 cents. He bought it. The city realized about $300 from the sale.

Car Tipped Over.

Frantically endeavoring to check his car, which was tearing down the Tenth street hill, near Park View avenue last night, Motorman Wainley was hurled into the air at the turning and knocked unconscious by landing across the cement curb. The car had gained such a high rate of speed that when it struck the guard rails of the curve it flipped over into its side, breaking most of the windows and badly wrenching the framework and machinery. There was but one passenger, a man sitting inside. He escaped with but a few slight bruises.

The conductor jumped when he saw that a wreck was inevitable. Wainley was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where he regained consciousness. The breath had been completely knocked out of him and he was purple in the face. The full extent of his injuries could not be ascertained, and it is feared that he is hurt internally. He resides at No. 572 Central avenue. A wrecker was hurried to the scene and had a tough job in righting the wrecked car. The motorman said that the brakes would not work, and that when he applied the reverse it would not take hold.

New Book to be Published.
Here's a woman who has lived on the desert and knows it well; and the people who speak, they are a book. It is "The Miner's Mirage Land" by Ida Meacham Strohbridge. Some of the stories bound in these covers have already been published in the Times and others are new. But they are all told to the author by the old gray bearded miners of the Nevada Desert, who feel the rare sympathy and charm of an understanding soul, confided to her. Forgetting the world which is so full of unbelief, typical of the whole series is "The Three Lakes," which treats of a mythic legend or mayhap it is a real story. Who knows? Any way old men whisper their tale to one another of the ladies with hidden which one man "Stoddard" found, and they still hunt for this hidden treasure, this mirage which is before them always. Forgetting the world which they have left they go on in search of the gold, and the years pass over them easily, leaving them gray.

Subscribers to the Times are offered a $7.50 Columbia graphophone at cost of freight, handling, etc., to wit: $1.15, which includes a single record of your own selection. The price of gold-molded records under this arrangement is 25 cents each (former charge 35 cents each). The machine can be heard to play at the Times office, where it is on exhibition daily. The plan will be explained fully to anyone calling at The Times' Graphophone Department.

Real estate operators: The Times Real Estate Number to be issued early in August will be designed for distribution among home owners, settlers and tourists. Those desiring advertising space in it should consult the business office early, as only a limited amount of advertising will be received for it. The "Liner" rate will be 3 cents per word.

Miss Geraldine Beaumont, contralto, of Boston, Mass., will sing at Plymouth Congregational Church, Twenty-first and Loveless avenues, at both morning and evening services tomorrow.

The Times' Home phone number has been changed from Exchange 2 to the Times. Simply ask the operator for "The Times," no prefix or number being necessary.

The San Francisco office of the Times is located in room 14, Chronicle Building, Telephone 524.
